

organized by approved by accredited by isuog.org

EACCME
(7.5 European
CME credits
(ECMEC@s))

Extempore

EXPERT meetings in Bucharest

FETAL EXAMINATION

navigating the future

BUCHAREST, ROMANIA

12st of October 2024

LEARN MORE

Prof. Rabih Chaoui

Prof. of Ob&Gyn, Co-Dir. of the Center of Prenatal Diagnosis and Human Genetics, Berlin / Germany

Prof. Karl Oliver Kagan

Prof. in Prenatal Diagnostic and Fetal Medicine, Dept of Gynecology and Obstetrics at University of Tuebingen, Tuebingen / Germany

Prof. Karim Kalache

Prof. of Ob&Gyn, Weill Cornell Medical College in Qatar, Division Chief, MFM, Women's Services at Sidra Medicin, Doha / Qatar

Modern Concepts of First Trimester Screening

09:00	Early pregnancy: between miscarriage and viability	Kalache
09:30	Aneuploidy screening: No NIPT without ultrasound	Kagan
10:15	Anatomic survey: Systematic examination increases detection rate	Chaoui
11:00	Fetal face: more than NT and NB measurements	Kagan
11:30	Fetal heart in first trimester: Success and pitfalls	Chaoui
12:00	Case reports on rare conditions in first trimester	Chaoui / Kagan / Kalache

12:30 Lunch break

2nd Trimester Screening: Daily challenges for experts

13:30	Fetal face: Clefts and beyond (35')	Kagan
14:05	Fetal neurosonography: Common and rare anomalies	Kalache
14:40	Fetal skeletal abnormalities: typical and non-typical disorders	Kagan
15:15	Fetal echocardiography: Common and rare anomalies	Chaoui

16:00 Coffee break

16:30	Fetal abdomen: Not always straight forward	Kalache
17:00	Round Table: What are the challenges today?	Chaoui / Kagan / Kalache
17:30	Why we miss anomalies and how to improve?	Chaoui
18:00	Closing remarks	Chaoui / Kagan / Kalache

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER

